

International conference

Response to Children and Youth Delinquency: Efficient Approaches to Navigate High Risk Behaviours

25-26 April, 2024 | Radisson Hotel Kaunas, K. Donelaičio St. 27, Kaunas

PROGRAM

25th of April, Thursday

11:00 – 11:55 Registration, welcoming coffee/tea and snacks

OPENING

12:00 – 12:20

Helén Nilsson, Director of Nordic Council of Ministers Office in Lithuania

Rugilė Chaleckaitė, Youth Advisory Board member at Nordic Council of Ministers Office in Lithuania

12:10 – 12:20

Edita Žiobienė, Ombudsperson for Children's Rights in Lithuania

12:20 – 12:50 Keynote speech (online) and Q&A

Evidence-based interventions for preventing juvenile delinquency within social care – a scoping review of governmental reports in the Nordic countries. Ulana Hellberg, Project manager, SBU, Swedish Agency for Health Technology Assessment and Assessment of Social Services, Sweden.

12:50 – 13:30 Lunch buffet

1st SESSION

---

13:30 – 14:50

Tendencies in response to children and youth delinquency: general overview, legislation, national initiatives. Moderator: Kristina Stepanova, Head of Family and Child Rights Protection Group, Ministry of Social Security and Labour, Lithuania

(Introduction before the session)

Presentations

Tackling youth crime in Finland - Models for first-timers and repeaters

Elina Pekkarinen, Ombudsperson for Children in Finland

Do juvenile offenders in Norway have their rights fulfilled according to the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child? Thov Midtsund Nordbø, Senior advisor, Office of Ombudsperson in Norway

Enhanced community policing and safer regions for the prosperity of children in Iceland.

Eyglo Hardardottir, the lead on crime prevention, the National Commissioner of Icelandic Police

Tendencies in prevention of juvenile delinquency in Latvia.

Natālija Laveniece-Straupmane, Senior Lawyer, Ministry of Justice, Latvia

14:50 – 15:20 Coffee and networking

2nd SESSION

---

15:20 – 16:50

Addressing children and youth delinquency through institutional services and correctional treatment. Moderator: Virginija Klimukienė, researcher and lecturer at Vilnius University, senior specialist at Resocialization coordination unit, Lithuanian prison service, Lithuania

(Introduction before the session)

Presentations

How does Norway organize/facilitate the execution of sentences for minors and young people?

Kristin Tandberg, Senior adviser in the Norwegian Directorate for Correctional Services, Prisons and Probation, Norway

Compulsory care of youth in Sweden. An overview of needs, challenges and progress.

Sara Lövenhag, Head of the Research Unit, the Swedish National Board of Institutional Care, SiS, Sweden

No child should be in prison - Estonian example of youth friendly legal system.

Taimi Nilson Social Insurance Board, Closed Institution Services for Children, Estonia

The functioning and change of children's socialisation centres in Lithuania.

Ignas Gaižiūnas (Adviser, Ministry of Education, Science and Sports, Lithuania)

9:00 – 9:30 Coffee and networking

3rd SESSION

9:30 – 11:00

Models of community- based services in addressing children and youth delinquent behaviour

Moderator: Sigita Šimkienė, President of Association of Cross-sectoral Cooperation

Coordinators for the Support to Families and Children, Adviser at Kaunas City Municipality Administration, Lithuania

(Introduction before the session)

Presentations:

Versatile work of Icehearts: Purpose and effectiveness of preventive, long-term and comprehensive child welfare work. Miika Niemalla, Managing director of Icehearts, Finland

Investing in the Future through Passion: A Case Study of Fryshuset, a Swedish Youth Center.

Björn Berglund, Manager, Fryshuset , Sweden

Preventive efforts in working with children and young people at risk of crime.

Marie Hedengran Linnet, Idrætsprojektet / Community Centre for Children and Young People & Centre for Vulnerable and Crime Exposed Young People, Denmark

TFCO, secure care for antisocial youth without placement in Secure Care facilities-how is it done and why? Lotta Höjman, Deputy manager of institution at that same Secure Youth Home, SiS Ungdomshem Hässleholm, Sweden

Discussion Q&A

11:00 – 11:30 Coffee and networking

4th SESSION

11:30 – 12:50

High Quality sustainable services in municipalities to address children and youth delinquent behaviour. Moderator: Monika Stankevičiūtė, Director of National Institute for Social Integration, Lithuania

(Introduction before the session)

Presentations

Empowering marginalized neighborhoods: Community work programs in Denmark.

Ulrik Lerbech Vinther, Consultant, Centre for Urban Regeneration and Community Development, Denmark

Impact-oriented transfer of public services - Innovation Agency Lithuania example.

Simona Uvarovaitė, Innovation Agency, Lithuania

We Chose to listen and understand. An example from Šiauliai district municipality.

Loreta Matolienė, Cross-sectoral cooperation coordinator of Šiauliai region municipality, Lithuania (presentation in Lithuanian)

A long-term support for vulnerable children – results from the icehearts longitudinal study.
Marjatta Kekkonen, Senior Researcher, Public Health and Welfare Department , Finnish Institute for Health and Welfare, Finland

12:50 – 13:00 Closing remarks

13:00 – 14:00 Lunch

Closing of the conference

PARTNERS

Ministry of Social Security and Labour of the Republic of Lithuania

Vilnius
University

